SUNNY RIDGE NURSERY U. S. Department of Agriculture

SWARTHMORE, PA.

SPECIAL OFFER GOOD ONLY FROM March 15 to April 1, 1951.

People are planting so many nut trees that our stock is low, some lines sold out.

GRAFTED CHINESE CHESTNUTS: If you see our nursery in late autumn you find nice burrs even on some small trees in the nursery rows. Some two year grafts are bearing and some 3-4 foot trees have a nut crop. These are proven trees.*

U. S. D. A. Varieties: We have Nanking, Kuling and Meiling, the three varieties released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. We also have the more widely tested Connecticut Yankee. Due to limited stock, we select varieties on orders. If you must name the varieties, we must charge you more. Write for these prices.

SEEDLING CHINESE CHESTNUTS: I have worked with chestnuts since 1897. As a result of travels in China, I have made five large importations of seed and can now offer Ching Chow Chinese Chestnut Seedlings. They have proved absolutely blight proof, not merely blight resistant. I say blight proof because they have lived at least eighteen years in this country without any injury from blight, although constantly exposed to it. More reliable producers than most seedlings. Can be safely planted as basis of profitable business, but not so productive as grafted trees.

A BOOK: "TREE CROPS" by J. Russell Smith, Sc.D. $5.00 Postpaid

Farming without plowing is agriculture of the future. This book tells of it.

Chapters on chestnuts, walnuts, pecans and neglected fruits as pawpaws and persimmons, especially Chinese persimmons. BUT the real contribution of TREE CROPS is the new idea of tree grown food for farm animals. The sugary pods of the Honey Locust tree have proved equal to 100 bushels of oats to the acre and the same acre produced 2 1/2 tons of lespedesa (legume) hay. Alabama Experiment Station.

Louis Bromfield says: "TREE CROPS is one of the important books of our time. It is a fascinating book for anyone interested in the basic problem of the nation - its real wealth and natural resources."

Bernard Baruch says: "Anyone with a plot large enough to plant a tree will be interested in reading TREE CROPS."

BLUEBERRIES: Blueberry King's Packet: Well grown 12-18 inch plants. Equal number of three expensive, new, specially selected, highest quality varieties in packet. New York State customer wrote October 10, 1950. (Packet bought 1948):

"Our blueberries did very nicely this year. Some of the berries were enormous, large as cherries, quite a marvel to all who saw them."

Packet of 6 - $6.50      12 - $12.00      36 - $30.00

HAZEL NUT: New Winkler; native of Iowa; hardy as jack rabbit; self-pollenating; bears in 2 years; large nuts. Have only a few trees. Give it rich soil.

SINGLE STEM HAZEL X FILBERT HYBRIDS: The U. S. Department of Agriculture horticulturists have made two very desirable crosses between the American hazel and the European Filbert. I have grafted these onto the Turkish tree hazel. The result is a different filbert tree, with one trunk, not a clustering giant bush. They grow rapidly and bear early.

TURKISH TREE HAZEL SEEDLINGS: This is a nut bearing tree but it cannot compete in nuts with filbert or hazel. It is recommended for its beauty - a remarkably perfect cone, rather sharply tapering. Will make your lawn a landmark.

ENGLISH WALNUT: Mostly the new Broadview. A few Franquette and Wilz Mayette.

AMERICAN PERSIMMON: There are very few persimmons in Nebraska and these should be good on the northern edge of persimmon territory such as Connecticut and most of New York State. Varieties: Early Golden, Nebraska.

CHINESE PERSIMMON: All who have them are delighted. Handsome foliage. Delicious fruit. Several varieties.

SHAGBARK (CARYA OVATA) often called Shellbark in the eastern states. This hickory tree, named for its shaggy bark has nuts of delicious flavor. The members of the Northern Nut Growers Association (Secretary, J. C. McDaniel, Dept. of Horticulture, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.) have searched the eastern United States and found mother trees that give most of the kernels in complete halves. Beautiful trees for your yard - an ornamental that gives rare food. Perfectly hardy from southern Minnesota to western North Carolina. If you are in the northern edge of wild hickory land you can plant the Weschke and be sure your climate will not hurt it.
